Program

Day 1 Individual arrival in Davos and welcome by the mountain guide. Following a short introduction to avalanche transceivers/safety, you'll head out into the powder snow.

The mountain guide will choose the descents depending on the snow conditions. The possibilities are simply amazing. Countless runs lead from the mountain stations in the ski areas to the various side valleys. And for a day tour with short ascents, there are gems such as the runs from the Pischahorn or the Gargellen Runtour loop from the Madrisa.
